

Dear WFTBN Family Members,

My name is Eric S. Vazquez and I will be your Family Readiness Officer. I am delighted about the opportunity to serve you and provide the information, tools, and resources you need to not only meet the challenges of military life, but also to take full advantage of the many opportunities that are available to you on and around this wonderful base.

I've served in the Marine Corps almost 18 years, and I am fully aware of the challenges that you may be faced with and want to assure you that you are not alone. The support which a spouse extends to their Marine is a critical element in enabling him or her to focus on their job. Our goal is to ensure that both you and your spouse have a pleasant and successful tour aboard the Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, San Diego (MCB CP).

I am always available to provide you and your spouse with the support required to make the most of your tour aboard MCB CP. Whether you're interested in educational opportunities, family or personal counseling, childcare, volunteering within the battalion, or you're just looking for something fun to do, I can help.

I know the military lifestyle can present unique challenges, but there are also so many benefits and opportunities that make it a rewarding experience and an amazing adventure. Weapons and Field Training Battalion is here to support you and your family. Please feel free to contact me at any time if you require any assistance with your transition. I look forward to meeting you and welcoming you as a new member of our family.

Please take the time to visit and like our Battalion Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/WFTBNFRMCRDSD/?ref=bookmarks>.

Sincerely,
Eric S. Vazquez
